

I am an avid listener to Air 1 in the Monterey area. This station is the only one available that plays positive music and I would truly be lost without access to it. Air 1 is very popular among my friends and we rely on this station to lift our spirits and keep us on a straight path to being better people. Please don't let it be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster!!